Passing Jamboree and Big Man Camp

For High School Football Teams
July 23, 2016

Manchester
University

Join Manchester University football coach Nate Jensen and his staff for a day of fun and instruction in the inaugural high school 7-on-7 Passing Jamboree and Big Man Camp at Carl W. Burt Stadium and adjoining fields on the Manchester campus. The event, on July 23, will feature 7-on-7 competition refereed by Manchester football personnel, and offensive and defensive line instruction conducted by Coach Jensen and his staff.

Check-in is at 9:30 a.m. at the Burt Field main gate with activities beginning at 10 a.m. Cost is $100 per team for the Jamboree or Big Man Camp, or $125 per team for both. Coaches are encouraged to bring their entire teams to participate in an event that highlights Manchester's commitment to building relationships, community outreach, personal growth and excellence.

The 7-on-7 games will begin on the hour and include 12 minutes on offense and 12 minutes on defense with two-minute breaks between. No contact is permitted.

The Big Man camp begins with offensive line instruction and drills from 10 to 11:30 a.m., followed by defensive line instruction and drills from noon to 1:30 p.m. with a half-hour break between. Big Man games and competition will run from 1:30 to 2 p.m.

Participants in both events must provide their own cleats and helmets and will need to complete a medical release form. Concessions will be sold during the event.
