

FIRST YEAR SEMINARS Fall 2016

This class introduces new students to college-level writing through a variety of disciplinary or interdisciplinary topics. Students will improve their thinking skills by examining a topic through multiple perspectives. This course will build community and aid students in their transition to college.

Please ✓ (check) five to seven FYS classes that are most interesting to you. You will enroll in one of those classes depending on availability and the times of your other classes.
